The Auburn Ball Association, officers, coaches, sponsors, and the City of Auburn will not be responsible for accidents or injury to any child or parents participating in activities associated with the Auburn Ball Association. Parents are urged to check their personal medical insurance to be sure that they are covered if needed. Each player is expected to follow all rules and regulations set forth by the Flint Hills League and the Auburn Ball Association.

I understand the above statement and agree not to hold the Auburn Ball Association, it's officers, coaches, sponsors, or the City of Auburn liable for any accident or injury that may occur while my child or myself is involved in any Auburn Ball Association sponsored activity. I also give permission for the participant listed above to participate in the Auburn Ball Association Spring and Summer Programs.
